This week's Gospel is a key support of Trinitarian doctrine in its association with baptism. Jesus (the Son) has come to the Jordan. The voice of God the Father acknowledges his delight in the obedience of his Son. The Spirit descends like a dove and comes to rest on Jesus. The three persons of the Trinity are each identified.

This Sunday we are at the end of the church's calendar and we are celebrating the Solemnity of Christ the King. The Gospel depicts the kingship of Jesus that is at odds with our own idea of worldly kingship. Jesus' kingship is a kingship of Obedience, of Humility, of Servanthood and of Suffering and Sacrifice.
